FEBRUARY 2026 EDITION

MANAGER'S REPORT

Safety & Proper Use of Motorized Bikes & Scooters

Motorized bikes and scooters can be a convenient and fun way to get around, but their use within our HOA community must prioritize safety, respect, and awareness of shared space. Riders should always operate these vehicles responsibly and in accordance with local laws and HOA guidelines to ensure the well-being of all residents.

For safety, riders are encouraged to always wear helmets and appropriate protective gear. Motorized bikes and scooters should be operated at low, controlled speeds within the community, especially near pedestrians, children, pets, and parked vehicles. Riders must yield to pedestrians, use designated paths where available, and avoid riding on sidewalks or restricted areas unless permitted.

Motorized bikes and scooters are not permitted to be ridden within the pool area or basketball court at any time. These spaces are designated for pedestrians and recreational use only and must remain free of motorized traffic for safety reasons.

Proper use also includes being mindful of noise levels, avoiding reckless behavior, and parking scooters or bikes neatly so they do not block walkways, driveways, or entrances. Parents and guardians should ensure that minors are supervised and understand safe riding practices.

Residents who observe unsafe behavior, rule violations, or other concerns within the community are encouraged to notify management promptly so the matter can be addressed appropriately. By working together and following these guidelines, we can maintain a safe, respectful, and enjoyable environment for everyone in our community.

Gates

We appreciate

everyone's patience as we continue working to keep all community gates operating properly. Unfortunately, gate systems are occasionally damaged, and in some cases, repairing one gate can affect another shortly thereafter.

Management is actively exploring ways to improve gate visibility and enhance signage indicating where vehicles should stop and wait while the gate opens. These improvements are intended to help residents and guests better understand proper gate use and reduce the likelihood of accidental damage. Thank you for your continued cooperation and understanding as we work toward improving the safety, functionality, and reliability of our community gates.

Office Hours & Resident Assistance

The management office is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4:30 p.m. No appointment is necessary, and residents are welcome to stop by during office hours for assistance with general community matters.

For accounting-related questions or concerns, residents may contact the Resident Support Team directly at 407-781-1188. For all other inquiries, please feel free to reach out by phone at 352-218-3835 or by email at strodriquez@lelandmanagement.com. DEVELOPER UPDATES

Exciting news for our residents! We are pleased to share the official announcement of the Calesa Market District, a premier grocery-anchored shopping plaza planned for our area. The development will be located just south of the SW 80th Avenue and SW 67th Avenue Road entrance, offering the promise of added convenience close to home.

The Calesa Market District is being developed and constructed by an independent third-party developer and is not a Colen Built Development project. We are happy to share that Publix Supermarket has been announced as the anchor tenant – bringing the familiar “shopping is a pleasure” experience to the community once complete.

Please note that all approvals, permitting, and development timelines are managed through Marion County, and as such, construction is not expected to begin in the immediate future. We will continue to share updates as information becomes available and milestones are reached.

As you are aware, Marion County is widening SW 80th Avenue in two phases (Segments 1A & 1B). Segment 1A is from SW 90th Street to North of SW 80th Street, and Segment 1B picks up from where 1A leaves off and continues to SW 38th Street. As Segment 1A is completed and Segment 1B is commenced, the path of travel may be reversed to avoid the worst of the construction. We share this information so our residents can plan daily traffic routes and travel accordingly.

SAFETY FIRST

When it comes to safety, shortcuts may not always be a safe choice. When I was in my early 20s, someone nicknamed me "Shortcut Johnny." That name stuck with me for three years. I was always hunting for a faster, shortcut way of doing things. I would even take back alleys home when I was a kid because it cut maybe 5 minutes off my travel time. One day, when I reached the military, my commander told me, "Jonathan, there is not always a need for speed."

I thought, "How corny is that?" I looked at him with silver dollar eyes and tilted my head like a German Shepherd, wondering where in "Sam Hill" did that come from. That day, he "voluntold" me to be on the department safety committee. I then had to read the safety manuals and come up to "speed" (he used the word, speed) on the department's safety rules, regulations, and policies, and don't forget the safety procedures (he bellowed out)! He then looked me dead in the eye and said ...

"Miller," he yelled, "fill out the safety reports, without cutting corners!" Now, this was a direct assault on my way of doing things! I was fire-engine red, mad! How dare he tell me, this young buckaroo, to slow down!

The truth is, the commander knew he had an unsafe cadet in his department, and he was going to fix the problem before it caused an accident. I was a safety liability because I cut corners. This commander thought it was in my best interest to slow down for safety reasons, but I was also hardheaded and couldn't see the forest through the trees. All I could see was anger!

When the commander gave me that order, I wanted to build a rocket to Alpha Centauri (4.24 light-years away), put him on it, and fire that bad boy up! Why does he want to slow me down so badly?

The commander knew that my shortcuts could one day make me unsafe, or, what's worse, create an unsafe condition for someone else. He wanted me to understand the safety of slowing down. You could miss the safety protocols when you are in a hurry. I needed to give myself a better opportunity to see safety at a 360-degree angle. I didn't want to admit it, but I knew he was right.

When it comes to safety, there are no shortcuts. Taking the shortcut is a choice, but it may not "necessarily" be the safe choice! Please don't make the wrong choice. Take the time to stay safe. Take the time to plan your events. Make efforts to avoid shortcuts that compromise your or others' safety. Plan accordingly and consider all possible safety issues that may arise during your event. You are important.

PS: I never did like that commander ... just sayin'.

Sholom Park

FINDING ZEN

February at Sholom Park invites the community to slow down, step outside, and experience the park in meaningful ways. From creative workshops and live music under the stars to guided walks through serene landscapes, this month's events celebrate connection, discovery, and the joy of being present in nature.

The month begins with Sholom Park's L.E.A.F. Series (Learn. Explore. Appreciate. Focus.) on Friday, Feb. 6, featuring a Birdhouse Building workshop from 10:30 a.m. to noon at Master the Possibilities Studio 2. Using pre-made kits, participants will assemble and decorate wooden birdhouses to be displayed throughout the park in March. Attendees may reclaim their birdhouse afterward or donate it for continued enjoyment. The cost is $5, plus a $12 supply fee payable to the instructor.

A highlight of the month is Park After Dark: Musical Mosaic – Dueling Pianos on Thursday, Feb. 19. Presented by the Jimi Pappas Entertainment Group, this high-energy outdoor concert blends musical talent, comedy, and audience interaction. Gates open at 5:15 p.m., with the concert beginning at 6 p.m. To preserve the intimate atmosphere, entry will not be permitted after 6:15 p.m. Food and beverages will be available for purchase, and guests may bring their own food and non-alcoholic drinks. Admission is $20 per person, and advance registration is required.

Sholom Park's popular "Walk and Talk" experiences also return in February. On Friday, Feb. 13, Walk and Talk: Part I takes place from 10 a.m. to noon, led by Managing Director Robert Colen and Park Manager Brian DeVane, exploring the park's history and original vision. Walk and Talk: Part II follows on Friday, Feb. 20, guiding participants through additional areas such as the enchanted forest, fragrance trail, food forest, and behind-the-scenes park operations.

The month concludes with Walk and Talk: Part Zen on Monday, Feb. 23, a reflective experience in the Japanese Zen Garden featuring mindfulness and meditation led by Park Administrator Misty Frye.

For full event details and registration information, visit sholompark.org/calendar or catalog.masterthepossibilities.org, or call 352-861-9751 ext. 1. This February, Sholom Park invites you to learn, explore, and find peace through nature, music, and mindful moments.

KEEP LEARNING

One of the great gifts of adulthood is realizing that learning does not have to stop when formal schooling ends. In fact, some of the most rewarding learning happens later in life, when curiosity is fueled by personal interest rather than grades or requirements. Whether someone is exploring a new career skill, building confidence with technology, or finally studying a subject they have always enjoyed, continued learning keeps minds active and lives engaged.

That is where ed2go classes make a meaningful difference. ed2go courses are online, instructor-led, or self-paced classes designed to fit real life. Learners can participate from the comfort of home and work through lessons on a schedule that suits their individual routines. For many adults, this flexibility removes the biggest barrier to education. There is no need to commute, rearrange work hours, or put other responsibilities on hold. Learning becomes something that fits into life rather than something that competes with it.

The benefits of continued learning extend far beyond convenience. Staying mentally active supports cognitive health and builds confidence at every age. For working adults, learning new skills can strengthen job performance or open doors to new opportunities. For retirees, education provides structure, purpose, and a chance to stay intellectually and socially engaged. Learning encourages curiosity, creativity, and connection, qualities that matter at every stage of life.

Master the Possibilities embraces this idea by offering a wide range of distance learning classes through ed2go. Topics include professional development, technology, personal enrichment, and creative interests. These courses allow learners to move at a comfortable pace, while still benefiting from guidance and interaction with an instructor.

At the same time, flexibility also means having choices. While many people enjoy online learning, others value the classroom experience with fellow learners. Master the Possibilities offers evening and weekend in-person classes for those who prefer a more traditional setting. These classes provide opportunities for discussion, hands-on activities, and shared learning experiences that many find motivating and enjoyable.

The message is simple. Learning is important at every stage of life, and it should be accessible in ways that respect busy schedules and individual preferences. Whether online or in person, education has the power to enrich daily life, spark new interests, and keep curiosity alive.

For a complete list of February classes, including our distance learning options, visit masterthepossibilities.org. You might be surprised at how easy it is to make room for learning something new and a chance to “Always Be A Student.”
